... HOW NEWSPAPER READERS LIKED HIM

When Hank Ketcham introduced Dennis' newest pal, the cat "Hot Dog," this past summer, here is how newspaper readers reacted:—

"I am so smitten by this character that I am keeping a file of all his appearances, so I can look back in years to come and enjoy him. I find it hard to believe I am doing so, but he has completely captivated me."

"Since you've introduced this lovable, beautiful cat we've gone out of our minds admiring the expressions you get on his silly-beautiful face!"

"Please—could we have a booklet of them ready for Christmas gifts?"
(Sorry—not by this Christmas.)

"All of your cartoons about Dennis are good, but this tops them all."

From a couple who call themselves "two cat-owned fans"—"PURRRRRR!"

But—not everybody likes cats, it seems, like this lady who wrote:—

"It came as a terrific shock and almost unbelievable. It is my sincere hope to find a very early demise for the cat."

What do YOU think? Is "Hot Dog" really a "cool cat"?

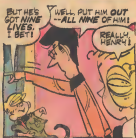

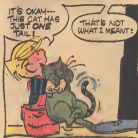

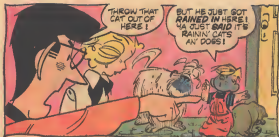

"YOU LOOK SHOCKY, TOO, IF YOU WERE RELATED TO LOOK AT THEM."

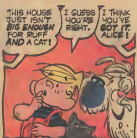

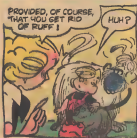

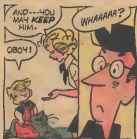

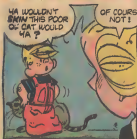

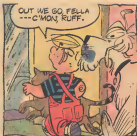

"YOU OUGHT BE CRAZY ABOUT HIM... HE'S AWFUL BEAUTIFUL!"
